

I support absolute restrictions on use of telephones for commercial promotions. I support allowing non-profit organizations to continue the practice providing they are required to identify themselves via caller ID.